Secretary of State Kemp Sets Qualifying Dates for the Special Elections in State House Districts 100, 104, 127 and Senate District 14

Atlanta – Georgia Secretary of State Brian Kemp today announced receipt of Governor Nathan Deal's Writ of Election setting Tuesday, Nov. 5, 2013 as the date for the special elections to fill the vacancies in State House Districts 100, 104, 127 and Senate District 14.

Secretary Kemp set the candidate qualifying for Monday, Sept. 16, 2013 through Wednesday, Sept. 18, 2013. Qualifying on Monday will run from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.; Tuesday from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.; and on Wednesday from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon. Candidates will qualify in the Elections Division of the Office of the Secretary of State, 802 West Tower, 2 Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive, SE, Atlanta, Georgia 30334. The qualifying fee is $400.

The election for State House District 100 will occur in portions of Gwinnett County. The election for State House District 104 will occur in portions of Gwinnett County. The election for State House District 127 will occur in portions of Jefferson and Richmond Counties. The election for Senate District 14 will occur in portions of Bartow, Cherokee and Cobb Counties.

The elections are non-partisan special elections with no party primaries. However, each candidate's party affiliation, if any, will be listed on the ballot. Run-off elections, if needed, will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 3, 2013.

Polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 5, 2013.

Citizens must be registered to vote by Monday, Oct. 7, 2013 to participate in the Nov. 5, 2013 special election. Voter registration forms can be obtained at any county registrar's office or from the Secretary of State's website: sos.ga.gov/elections.

Brian Kemp has been Secretary of State since January 2010. Among the offices wide-ranging responsibilities, the Secretary of State is charged with conducting efficient and secure elections, the registration of corporations, and the regulation of securities and professional license holders.
